Local Lady Found Dead On Road

—Near Sidney

Tragedy struck at a Sidney family at the week-end when Mrs. Kate Beswick, of Dixon Ave., was found dead on the side of the road on Monday morning.

Mrs. Beswick attended the church service at the North Saanich Pentecostal Church, East Saanich Road, and set out for the short walk to her home. She lived alone and her failure to return passed unobserved. She was not discovered until early on Monday morning, when a neighbor's young daughter found her.

The dead woman had suffered a collapse while on her way home and had fallen into the roadside ditch which was running deep with water.

An enquiry was instituted by the coroner, and accidental death was accepted as cause of death without the formality of an inquest.

Mrs. Beswick, a native of Easthamstead, England, arrived in Canada with her family in 1912. She made her residence on Saanich Peninsula in that year. Her husband, William G. Beswick, predeceased her in 1949.

Church Worker

Surviving are three sons, William Arthur and Reginald Samuel, of Sidney, and Sidney Brian, of Victoria; four sisters, Mrs. J. Bosher, Mrs. A. Jones and Mrs. N. Marshall, of Sidney, and Mrs. W. Brock of Nelson, B.C.; four brothers, Ambrose, Arthur, Herbert and Reginald Readings, all of Sidney area.

Mrs. Beswick was a fervent worker within the Pentecostal Church and had been active during the construction of the church and since its opening. She was highly esteemed throughout North Saanich.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, Feb. 25, at the Cline Funeral Chapel, Sidney, when Rev. G. W. Brooks will officiate. Interment will follow in Royal Oak Burial Park.

Scouts Seek More Drive Volunteers

More volunteers are sought by the Sidney Scout Group Committee to take part in the telephone bridge contest to be featured throughout this week until Saturday evening.

Residents are urged to volunteer to stage a bridge party in their homes in aid of Scout funds. Details may be obtained from Fox's Ladies' Wear store on Ber on Ave. Results should be phoned to R.C.M.P. Constable G. Kent, Mrs. D. Godwin or D. Cook.

NEW SERVICE IN SIDNEY AREA

A laundry service has been inaugurated in the Sidney area. The new service is located at Van Isle Marina, on Harbour Road, consisting of electric washing and clothes drying machines, the service is available to all residents of the area.

The marine base has also instituted a coffee bar in the vicinity of the waterfront installation. The coffee bar will cater to the requirements of visitors to the boats tied up at the waterfront. It will also serve tourists and others. In addition to the refreshment service the bar will feature a display of fishing and boating tackle, which will be on sale at the base.

Harry Peard Elected C. of C. Prexy

Harry Peard, well known at Brentwood as proprietor of The Anchorage, will head the Central Saanich Chamber of Commerce during 1954. He was elected to the chair by acclamation at the February meeting of the Chamber.

At the meeting at Brentwood on the evening of Monday, March 1, new officers will be installed. Past president is G. D. Moody; vice-president, Alex Cuthbert; and secretary, G. R. Smith.

A full council has been elected and its members will be installed at the Monday meeting.

Salt Spring Artist Is Acclaimed

Nancy Stevens, dark-haired amateur artist from Salt Spring Island, has realized a long-standing dream. An oil painting by the shy, soft-spoken stenographer was picked for exhibition in London's Guildhall.

The painting, a portrait of a stevedore in a muffler and cap, is one of 300 selected for the fifth annual Guildhall show.

Miss Stevens, employed by a fishery firm, has worked and waited five years in Britain for this opportunity. She went to Britain on holiday in the fall of 1947—and stayed to paint.

"I would like to make a name as a portrait painter," she said in an interview, "but I still have a long way to go."

Miss Stevens' painting, however, attracted the attention of a newspaper critic and her name headed his reviews.

Devon Decider

Nancy spent seven wartime years in the cipher office of the naval base at Esquimalt, and then decided in 1947 to visit her aunt, Mrs. Alice Bowden, at Bradninch, Devon. It was partly the influence of Devon, one of England's "painting counties", that persuaded her to accept the inexpensive teaching available in London.

"I couldn't hope for the same facilities back home," she said. She has attended night classes at an art school for five years, graduating from water colors and charcoal drawings to still life in oils. She now is taking her third term in portraiture.

"I love it," she said, "but I find I have too little time to make fast progress."

Miss Stevens works a full day as a secretary. When her boss is out of town, which happens frequently, Nancy helps in the architect's office, tracing and coloring.

SHE SEES SURE SIGN OF SPRING

Mrs. J. S. Clark has seen a sure sign of spring. The Satchell Road lady reports that her dog-tooth violets were already in bloom at the beginning of this week.

The advent of a mild wet spell following the wintry days at the beginning of the year has turned many minds to the problems of gardening as they lie ahead.

KNOW YOUR TEACHER Revolver Is Out of Place In Modern School Room

Corporal punishment in schools is still a highly debated subject. Despite the adherents which the stick or strap have maintained there are many who contend that school is not the place for either.

Neither the supporters nor the opponents of corporal punishment have advocated the use of firearms as a salutary weapon for harassed teachers.

Fred J. Willway, principal of Royal Oak elementary school, recalls the day when firearms appeared in his school. It was at a time when Royal Oak's new school was unthought of. Mr. Willway had but recently graduated from normal school and was teaching in a rural school some nine miles from Princeton.

There were 12 pupils at the school and the dozen came from but two families. The families had been engaged for a number of years in a steady feud. Culmination of the feud brought a pupil to school armed with a loaded revolver. Mr. Willway was not invalidated home.

This is the first of a series of articles, "Know Your Teacher" which will be featured in the columns of this newspaper. The outline of teachers from all parts of the Saanich School District will be provided in order that residents and parents may truly know their teachers. The co-operation of members of the Saanich Teachers' Association in this connection is warmly appreciated.

The teacher had taken up his profession after rejecting that which had been chosen by his parents. His father was one of the first two doctors in Labrador. The first was the famed Dr. W. T. Grenfell.

Not For Him

At an early age Fred Willway decided that medicine was not for him. His future was abruptly settled to a minor degree in 1917 when he ran away from school and enlisted in the Royal Navy. In 1919 he was once more a civilian.

Three Daily Services Are Planned For Anacortes

For nearly three months during the summer of 1954, three ferries from Anacortes will arrive at the Sidney wharf each day. At other times during the current season, two ferries per day will arrive; while early in the season the service will consist of only one ship per day.

Last season a maximum of two ferries per day operated on regular schedule between Anacortes and Sidney. The service is operated by the State of Washington Ferries. So far as is known, ferry service from Anacortes to Sidney will be more frequent this year than ever before.

In addition to the State of Washington Ferries ships from Anacortes, the C.P.R.'s S.S. Princess Elaine will operate a daily service between Vancouver and Sidney, making a stop at one of the Gulf Islands on the westbound trip. In other words, during the height of the tourist season this year, four ships will land at Sidney every day.

Proposed Schedule

Following is the proposed schedule of the Anacortes-Sidney ferry, which is still subject to minor amendments:

Father Flew First, Son Is Ahead on Hours In Air

When flying was an infant science and only pursued by the courageous, the Royal Flying Corps was formed in Britain to direct the prosecution from the air of the First World War.

To the end of that conflict and later the man who flew with the infant air force was considered a degree more intrepid than his grounded colleague in other arms of the forces. The aircraft in use at that time have disappeared from the lanes of the air. They were considered the epitome of aerial transport as the time of their currency, but they have been vastly superseded in the course of years.

Among the comparatively few who flew with the Royal Flying Corps was B. S. Philp. Some 40 years later he is to be found on his Patricia Bay Highway farm in North Saanich. There he has retired to concentrate his attentions on the early endeavors of the farmer after leaving naval service in the major wars.

Back In Uniform

The Second World War saw Mr. Philp back in uniform. His First War training and experience stood him in good stead and rather than take a post on the ground the elderly air force pilot elected to fly with the command.

When Flight Lieutenant Philp took to the air for the second time he was flying machines of a vastly different type from his First War endeavors. Far heavier, larger and of considerably greater power, the machines of the Second War were effective offensive weapons. The days of wood and string, which characterized the earlier war were gone for ever.

During these two periods of international conflict Mr. Philp clocked up many flying hours.

His son, O. B. Philp, was young when the Second World War broke out. In due course he left his school leaving and promptly came back with a commission in the Royal Canadian Air Force.

Pay Boost For Island Teachers

—Also For Staff

At a meeting of the trustees of Saltspring School District No. 64, held recently, an agreement with Employees' Local No. 441 was signed for the year 1954.

A salary scale which gives the teachers in the district an increase of 4.7 per cent over 1953 salaries was approved by the board.

Allowance was made in the estimates for improvements to be made at the Saturna and Mayne Island schools.

It was decided to table the proposal for an appraisal of the schools in the district till the next meeting.

OFFERS REWARD FOR VANDALISM

Mrs. G. Y. Kirkpatrick, of Keating Cross Road, Saanichton, is offering a reward for information leading to the apprehension of those responsible for damage to a car parked outside her home.

A Morris sedan was parked outside the Kirkpatrick home on Tuesday evening of last week. When Mr. Kirkpatrick returned to the car, he found that all windows had been smashed, the lights were destroyed and the instrument panel inside the car was wrecked.

Central Saanich police are still investigating and Mrs. Kirkpatrick has offered a reward of $25 for information which will reveal those responsible for this act of vandalism.

Ferry Schedule Set For New Lady Rose

Schedule of the inter-island ferry service which will be launched on Thursday, Feb. 25, has been furnished The Review by O. H. New of Vancouver, managing director of Coast Ferries, Ltd. The trip will be made from Steveston every Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday.

Last week it was announced that the C.P.R. is withdrawing its regular service to the Gulf Islands at the time the Coast Ferries service is inaugurated.

Mr. New's letter to The Review said in part:

"It became necessary to inaugurate this service on short notice because the 'Princess Nora' had to undergo annual overhaul. Consequently, the service referred to herewith, using M.V. 'Lady Rose', will handle passengers, express, freight, and mail, if required, but not automobiles. Plans are now in hand for her replacement by a larger ship at a later date which will also carry automobiles."

"We understand that the owners of the Swartz Bay Fulford ferry are hoping to begin a service between the outer islands and Swartz Bay which would undoubtedly be a very valuable connection. However in the meantime, you will note that our schedule makes provision for passengers from Galiano, Mayne, Saturna or Pender going to Beaver Point on Salt Spring Island, which should prove of value to those islanders wishing to go to Victoria. The distance to Fulford Harbor from Beaver Point by Road is quite short and connection is thus established between the outer islands and Vancouver Island by this means. We hope that this connection will be of some assistance in the meantime, pending completion of other ferry arrangements which may be made."

The Schedule

Following is the schedule of the new ferry service:

Leave:
Airline Limousine Terminal
1023 West Georgia St.	8.30 a.m.
Steveston Govt. Wharf	9.30 a.m.
Galiano	12.30 p.m.
Mayne Island	1.00 p.m.
Hopie Bay	2.15 p.m.
Saturna Island	3.00 p.m.
Beaver Point	4.15 p.m.
Port Washington	5.00 p.m.
Mayne Island	5.45 p.m.
Galiano	6.00 p.m.
Arrive:
Steveston	8.30 p.m.
Vancouver	9.30 p.m.

BIG SUM IN 1953 PERMITS

Value of building permits issued by the Village of Sidney during 1953 totalled the imposing figure of $106,350. The total was recently struck by A. W. Sharp, village clerk. The permits allowed the construction of 16 new residences, additions to 10 existing residences and additions and alterations to four stores.

New Plan School Route At Sidney

Heavy traffic of school children to Sidney School, which lies in provincial government territory on Henry Ave. in North Saanich, may be relieved through the co-operation of the Village of Sidney and the provincial government.

A. W. Sharp, village clerk, informs The Review that a strip of land, 33 feet wide, lying on the western boundary of the village between Beacon Ave. and Henry Ave., had previously been gazetted as a roadway. The provincial government is arranging to acquire an equal strip of land from the department of transport which would permit construction of a standard roadway of 66 feet along Seventh St. from Beacon Ave. to Henry Ave. School children travelling to Sidney school could use this roadway in numbers.

Whole cost of the new roadway is expected to be slightly over $3,000 and the village is to be asked by the provincial government to share this expense. A gravelled road is planned. Half the road would lie within the village limits and the other half in provincial territory.

Meanwhile the village is clearing brush from the side of Henry Ave. within the village area. School children at present are obliged to walk on the highway, which already carries vehicular traffic, and fears have been expressed concerning their safety.

Express shipments received at Airline Limousine Terminal from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m., emergencies until midnight. Perishable freight will be received between 7.30 a.m. and 8.30 a.m. at ship's side at Steveston on above days, if properly packed. Milk, etc., should be packed with dry ice.

Non-perishable freight will be received at Terminal, Cartage Ltd., 505 West First Ave., Vancouver, Fairmont 7711, between 8 a.m. and 3 p.m., Monday to Friday inclusive. All freight shipments from Vancouver to Steveston must be prepaid. Vancouver pickup service at city rates.

LAST RITES FOR MRS. J. M. BROOKS

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Ellen Brooks were observed from the Thomson Funeral Home on Wednesday, Feb. 24. Rev. Roy Melville officiated and interment followed in Royal Oak Burial Park.

Mrs. Brooks passed away in Rest Haven Hospital on Sunday, Feb. 21.

Surviving are her husband, John M. Brooks, at home, Ardmore Drive, Sidney; two brothers, Albert Bird, of Calgary, and Ernest Bird, of Victoria, and a niece and a nephew.

Surely This Is Proof? Asks Former Road Man

More money has been spent on Tunstead Road by Central Saanich in two years than was spent in 30 years by Saanich Municipality, states R. E. Nimmo, Saanichton. Mr. Nimmo, a retired roads foreman under Saanich, offers further information on the road which is becoming the subject of a wide controversy in the Municipality of Central Saanich.

In answer to Reeve Pickles' contribution in your last issue, anent the status of Tunstead Road, I have to repeat these few facts. I was instructed by Reeve Nicholson and Works Superintendent Pim in the fall of 1913 to make certain improvements to Tunstead's Road. I kept it in condition for 35 years or until I was retired. All reports of work done of that road were sent to the municipal office. After Central Saanich took over from Saanich more money was spent under Reeve Pickles' reign in two years than I spent for upkeep in more than 30 years.

Tunstead Road has been in public use for more than 40 years, which alone would make it a public road. It has not been gazetted if it is not the fault of the settler. If it must be gazetted it is the duty of the municipality to attend to it.

A Short Road

The road is only a short one, hardly as long as the reeve's last epistle.

Survey Report Awaited

—By Minister

Hon. P. A. Gagliardi, British Columbia's minister of public works, is awaiting the report of the survey promised by the Black Ball Line before he makes any commitments on a subsidized ferry service to link the Gulf Islands with the Saanich Peninsula.

In the meantime, however, if any transportation emergency occurs, the minister will authorize the inauguration of the service at once, he said. He promised to start the subsidized service if the Lady Rose of Coast Ferries, Ltd., did not maintain a service from Steveston.

An imposing delegation of 28 visited the minister's office on Wednesday morning. They represented the Gulf Islands, Salt Spring Island, Chamber of Commerce, Duncan Chamber of Commerce, Victoria Chamber, and Sidney and North Saanich Chamber.

Jas. Campbell, of Saturna, acted as spokesman and urged that Gulf Islands Ferry Co. be authorized to start a subsidized service at once. Some sound arguments were presented. The minister gave the delegation a courteous hearing, but he's still waiting for the Black Ball report.

Present at the meeting and urging that the service be launched were Dr. L. Giovando and J. D. Tisdale, members of the legislature for the Islands and Saanich, respectively.

New Cold Storage Plant Is Rising

Equipment of B.C. Plie Drivers is now engaged in driving piles on the property of A. E. Towers in Shoal Harbor in preparation for the erection of a modern fish cold storage plant. Mr. Towers operates Gulf Islands Barge and Transportation Co.

A substantial amount will be invested in the new cold storage plant which will specialize in the custom freezing of fish. Mink ranchers in this district will be served from the plant. It is expected that the new industry will be in operation this spring.

WEATHER BAN

Exercise planned for last week-end by the R.C.A.F. Ground Observer Corps was cancelled due to weather conditions. The scheme will be put into operation again March 28.

Surely This Is Proof? Asks Former Road Man

Reeve Pickles says: "It is possible that as I have never been elected to a position of the highest municipal responsibility that I do not realize the duties, obligations and responsibilities of holding such public office."

One would think the man was road, but the work which I did on Lamont Road and which gave, talking about the City of Vancouver. The reeve says that Lamont Road was gazetted in 1948. That was after I have left the employ of Saanich. I admit my error in saying that it was not a gazetted road. (Continued on Page Three)

ADDRESSES ROTARIANS

Lumbering as an industry in Peru was discounted by W. A. Richards, addressing the Sidney Rotary Club on Wednesday evening of last week. The visiting school principal from South America drew a brief picture of the country in which he resides.

Although there is a dearth of lumber on the populated coastal plain, few attempts have been made to log off the forests which stretch extensively through the interior of the country. Transportation would prove too expensive a project, he said.

Transportation in that country includes the railway operating at the greatest altitude of any in the world, he observed. The passengers are required to take oxygen when the train reaches a height of 17,000 feet. It necessitates a 12-hour journey to cover 300 miles of steep grade.

Mr. Richards outlined the geographical characteristics of the coun-

ROYAL OAK TOPS TROPHY LEAGUE

North Saanich high intermediate girls defeated their Royal Oak high counterparts by a 29-21 score in an F. N. Wright trophy basketball game played at the North Saanich gymnasium on Friday last.

At half time, Royal Oak enjoyed a two-point lead with a 14-12 score. After the intermission, Donna Hepworth ran in several good shots in quick succession which gave the north end team a lead which they gradually fashioned into an eight-point win.

The three schools, Royal Oak, Mount Newton and North Saanich, are at about the half-way mark in the inter-school basketball schedule with Royal Oak leading in trophy points.

INSURANCE OFFICIALS WARN AGAINST LAXITY IN ALARMS

An estimated 10,000 industrial fires take place each year in Canada, with a loss of more than $25,000,000, according to officials of the All Canada Insurance Federation.

Officials of the federation, which represents more than 200 fire, automobile and casualty insurance companies, said it was important that workers in industrial plants make themselves familiar with any fire instructions issued by the management and with the fire-fighting equipment at hand.

"It is particularly important that employees know how to give a fire alarm without delay," said officials. "They warned against blocking fire exits with tools and boxes, leaving oily rags and waste matter about, and careless use of cigarettes, matches, and inflammable liquids."

Precautions

Federation officials suggested that employees in plants where no fire drill instructions have been issued observe the following precautions in case of fire:

1. Stop work. Shut off machines and all power.
2. Shut off gas and other flames.
3. Close all doors and windows not being used as fire exits.
4. Clear passageways of all chairs, stools, and other furniture that might hinder people leaving the building.
5. Walk, never run, to nearest exit. Talk as little as possible, and go out calmly.

6. Never try to use elevators.
7. If fire instructions are posted in your plant make it your duty to know them and follow them to the letter. It may be your life you save.

its status as a public road was done over 15 years before it was gazetted. Anyhow, I am glad it has that protection.

The reeve says: "It is said some maintenance work was carried out by Saanich Council prior to its being gazetted, but I am advised there are no records to verify this." Saanich paid the bills for the work we did on the road. I think that should be sufficient verification for anyone. If he wants further particulars I am sure that Councillor Lamont can supply them.

I am sure the reeve could find more profitable means of showing us that he recognizes his high responsibilities. To all who differ with him he imputes ulterior motives, like his accusing me of playing politics and attempting to sabotage the municipality.

A STEP IN RIGHT DIRECTION

WE'RE cheered by reports this week that the provincial government realizes the danger to school children who have to proceed on a single, busy thoroughfare to reach Sidney Elementary school. The government is reported to be formulating a plan which may result in the opening up of Seventh Street between Beacon and Henry Avenues. While not completely solving the problem of pedestrian school children, it is undoubtedly a step in the right direction.

Co-operation of the Village of Sidney will be sought by the provincial government in construction of this new road. The Review is confident that the co-operation of the village fathers will be forthcoming.

IT IS SIGNIFICANT

THE Gulf Islands are represented in the House of Commons in Ottawa by a supporter of the C.C.F. party, Saanich Peninsula's representative is a member of the Progressive Conservative party. Both these gentlemen sit on the opposition side of the House.

Recently the government sponsored legislation which will enlarge the scope of the National Housing Act and encourage the construction of new homes all over Canada. We know of no part of Canada where new homes are more needed than right here in this coast district.

It is significant to The Review that the member for Saanich supported the home-building legislation.

It is significant to The Review that the member for The Islands opposed the home-building legislation.

These facts should not be forgotten.

SOME SOUND HORSE SENSE

DR. Larry Giovando, member of the B.C. legislature for the Gulf Islands, talked some good horse sense in his speech to the legislature last week. His address has already been widely reported.

The medical practitioner was on sound ground when he urged further developments of the hospital program and the necessity of having a bed ready for every patient who needs one. Perhaps no member of the legislature is better versed on the hospital problem than is Dr. Giovando.

The speaker thanked the minister of public works for the program now under way in The Islands but pointed out that "the transportation problem on the Gulf Islands is in a deplorable state and I trust something will be worked out." The Islanders could not agree with their member more.

This year Dr. Giovando failed to urge, as he did last year, that The Islands should become one separate constituency in the pending redistribution. As time passes, more and more people are agreeing that The Islands and the Saanich Peninsula should be linked in one provincial constituency.

TESTING DRIVERS

THE Review is cheered at the co-operation of the provincial government in sending a mobile drivers' testing unit to Sidney to save the applicants an expensive journey to the City of Victoria. The drivers to be tested have generally agreed that the gesture by the government is a generous one and that it is sincerely appreciated.

The testing of drivers here is intended to prevent any hardship to the candidates. It is possible that a little further study of the program might alleviate minor hardships which are cropping up.

The driver to be tested receives through the mail a card which directs him to be at the testing unit at a definite hour on a specific day. The card points out that failure to attend at the appointed time may result in the recipient's driver's license being suspended. In other words it is a definite command to be there and on time.

In this district reside a number of persons employed in industry. In order for them to be present at 11 a.m. on a Tuesday, for instance, they must lose substantial sums in wages. Many residents of North Saanich are employed on James Island. One gentleman of our acquaintance lost half a day's pay at the industrial plant in order to be tested as a driver. Another will be obliged to forego a full day's pay. Instead of $1, these gentlemen are having to pay substantial sums for their tests.

This loss of revenue and production hardly seems necessary. We feel that some leeway should be extended to a car driver—more than is suggested in the postcard. Surely if a man normally works gainfully on Tuesday but does not on Wednesday, he should not be compelled to appear on Tuesday.

GOING BACK?

Editor, Review,
Sir,
I have heard that a "Back to Britain" fund has been started for "F.G.R." It is sad that such a promising career must be so suddenly cut short, but I can understand how the burden of our displeasure must weigh upon him. Flight is the only solution and so that it may not be too ignominious, I gladly enclose a small donation to the fund. Please acknowledge same.

UNKNOWN LAND

Editor, Review,
Sir,
When The Review comes we always look over the weather report with interest. I always tell the folks down here that the summers on Vancouver Island cannot be beat anywhere.
Many, I find, have a very wrong idea of Canada and I advise them to take a trip and visit their border neighbors. They are quite surprised when I tell them that the thermometer goes much lower here than where I came from. To my mind the average American does not know Canada and its geography nearly as well as the Canadian knows U.S.A. We have had a really grand winter here so far and thinking that it might be of interest to you I am enclosing under separate cover some local papers.

No doubt you folks are enjoying spring weather by now.

A RINK NEEDED

Editor, Review,
Sir,
Though I am rather a newcomer in the Sidney district, I have enquired around and so do not believe there has been any agitation or movement for a skating and curling rink for Sidney. I did assist in getting Victoria's curling rink going and hold a membership and share in it, even though I knew I was moving out here. I believe that if your paper would start things moving we might possibly have a rink going by next winter.
A curling rink can be made to pay its way, but a skating rink—fulfill its most useful function—a good, clean, healthy sport for

Reflections From the Past

Candidates for election to the Sidney Waterworks District board of trustees are Everett Goddard, George Gray, Charles M. Lang, H. J. McIntyre, W. E. Oliver, William Peddle, Norman Shillito, W. A. Stacey, A. E. Voegel and F. N. Wright.

J. Brookes, of Duncan, has been over to Fulford recently with his bulldozer. Considerable improvement has been made on a number of properties. These include those of R. Akerman, J. W. Graham, C. Lee and L. R. Drummond.

At the inaugural meeting of the recently elected board of management of the Lady Minto Gulf Islands Hospital the following officers were named for the coming year: chairman, W. M. Mouat; vice-chairman, T. F. Speed; secretary, C. S. Holmes; treasurer, A. J. Eaton. Mrs. George Lowe was elected convener of the house committee and a special committee was appointed to organize a thorough canvass of the area for subscribers to the hospital. Members of the committee are Gavin C. Mouat, Ven. Archdeacon G. H. Holmes, Mrs. L. D. Drummond and Miss Lees.

Rev. R. Venables was on Mayne Island at the week-end to take services at Galiano and Mayne in the evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Myers left on Tuesday to visit in Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Tuttle have received a further wire from Ottawa regarding their son, Cpl. Kenneth Gordon Tuttle, previously reported wounded in action. It is stated that the wound, in the right knee was gained from high explosive shell. Further information has been promised when available.

Thursday afternoon Badminton Club at Ganges staged a badminton party on Wednesday in the Central Settlement Hall. In attendance were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Robinson, Mrs. Warren Hastings, Lieut. and Mrs. Vivian Graham, Mrs. A. Wolfe-Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Parsons, Mrs. Dave Fyvie, Jr., Miss Simone Chantelle, Miss Betty Kingsbury, Miss Vivian Layard, W. A. Brown, W. Hague, A. B. Cartwright, V. Case Morris, Ormonde Springfield and Billy Hague.

S. Percival has returned home to Pender Island after many months spent in hospital in Victoria.

20 YEARS AGO

Guy Brown, of the Cranberry Marsh district of Salt Spring Island, met with a fatal accident on Thursday when he attempted to board a moving logging truck. The young man signalled the truck to stop, but the driver, Harry O'Neill, was unable to bring the laden truck to a standstill. Brown essayed to board and slipped beneath the trailer. Both legs were severed and the victim died in an ambulance en route to Victoria. Mr. Brown was 27 years of age. He had lived for about 20 years on Salt Spring Island.

Geoffrey Scott was re-elected president of the Salt Spring Island Creamery Co. at the annual meeting on Saturday. Mr. Scott reported on the year's activities. He noted that the average price of butter during the year had been rather higher than during the previous year. A total of 103,000 pounds of butter had been produced by the company during 1953. Other officers were: vice-president, Reginald Price; directors, D. H. Ruckel, C. S. Holmes, W. M. Mouat, E. C. Collins, W. M. Palmer and T. F. Speed. W. M. Mouat has resigned his office of treasurer after 18 years in that capacity. Mr. Speed has been elected to take his place.

A $50 reward is offered to persons giving information leading to the conviction of persons who broke into the home of John Dean at the summit of Mount Newton and stole a number of blankets and other property.

William May, of the Sidney Fuel Co., has recently purchased a handsome new Ford V8 truck. The new truck will handle two cords of wood at a time.

children at a cost to them and parents which can afford to pay—does well if it can pay running and upkeep expenses.

Therefore while possibly enough money in repayable shares could be raised for the curling rink, I believe money to erect and equip a skating rink would have to come from donations and other ways of raising money plus donations of land and tax arrangements from the village commission.

I believe the most economical building to erect and maintain would be a skating rink large enough for hockey and about four sheets of curling ice.

I am sure if residents of Sidney and district are interested they can get very valuable help and advice from management of Victoria Curling Association whose rink was built on the combined experience of many old curlers from various cities and a lot of travelling to view many new rinks. This rink is a building, I believe an architectural credit to Victoria, and the cost and operational upkeep a credit to the experience and business ability of many prominent in its construction.

MORE ABOUT LEISURE

"Were you a sailor before you stopped roaming?" I asked him.
"No. I was a railroad man most of my life, then went into the railroad supply business, then came here. Come in."

"Are you glad you came here?" I asked, moving into a tastefully upholstered parlor.

"We sure are." His manner was patient but his eyes invited me to explain my visit. His wife came in from the kitchen. With her competent housekeeping air and her pretty apron she was the picture of a good homemaker.

"Your neighbors all say you're a man in a million because you continue making a success of chickens year after year." I said. "Will you tell me how you do it. It ought to be put in a book."

His laugh was tolerant but short. "Patience," he said. "That's all."

INTO BUSINESS

"We saw an ad for a furnished cottage, but when the real estate man said it was on an island we said 'nix.' Times were hard. It was 1932. We thought it over again and decided to take a look. There were no jobs for men of my age so we might as well starve to death on an island as anywhere, we thought. Friends said we were crazy."

"Egg prices were dropping to around 12, 13 cents a dozen. Everything was tough. We had practically no money, but we took a chance on a lease of this place and bought ourselves 25 birds."

He shook his head reminiscently. "If it hadn't been for the credit which Bridge, the local storekeeper at Port Washington gave me, we wouldn't have had a chance. One thing, I saw: If we could make enough to eat under bad conditions we would be all right afterwards when times improved."

"You think bad times were helpful to that extent?" I asked.

"I wouldn't say exactly helpful," he stated grimly. "They just didn't leave us room for foolish mistakes or for getting the big head. Maybe that helped. We knew our chances were slim."

The Japs had fallen in even with their large flocks of chickens and thrifty ways. So we went ahead slowly. There was no way to make money fast. We plugged along, experimenting and trying to improve our methods for 14 years.

"After about three years, we found ourselves able to get along despite the fact that our capital was still

FOGBOUND

HUMANITY RELAXES ON NIGHT BOAT

(By Ray Crann)

We believe rose colored glasses should be ground to a special lens and used for trips abroad to our mainland of B.C. This is of course only recommended to those of you who dwell in the sunny seclusion of Saanich.

We suggest your itinerary commence with a T.C.A. reservation for 6.45 a.m. any Saturday in the next five to eight weeks. Driving to Patricia Bay Airport you will feel alive and aglow with the windy freshness of the early morning hours. Forgotten are those mental blocks of the night before about getting up early. You have a full day ahead of you, business or pleasure. Casually you remember your return reservation. As you rise in the aircraft toward the bright sunshine, there is no evidence in sight of the thick grey fog to settle over your world of the evening.

Unprepared

You are not prepared to hear a soft voiced female of T.C.A. say to you, "Sorry sir, all aircraft are grounded, because of fog." Although she smiles very sweetly your world is a grey, forbidding shroud. Barely visible are buildings and people. You are one of the many, with a "go home" problem who congregate foggy nights at the Vancouver International Airport.

Good old C.P.R. You decide on the night boat, another soft elusive voice says, "Sorry, sir, no berths or beds available." You bless the Black Ball Ferry, then you remember they are a speculation of the future via Vancouver-Victoria.

A philosophy of some kind is necessary as you consider sitting the night through. The backs of those cosy looking leather chairs will be come stiff and cold before 7 a.m. Settled in your chair, the propeller churning toward home and sunshine, your world will hold a new interest, people, they are all around you, in the next chairs, across the room, behind you and before you.

No More Men

Behind you is a voice of charm telling a sailor boy that she left her husband yesterday, parted for good and all time, no more men for this young madam. Fame and fortune await her in Victoria, she will support her child. Within the hour a dinner and show is arranged for next evening.

Two well dressed matrons smile and relax, there is new hope for the world in a date. They continue to explain to all and sundry this is the first time they have travelled without a bed, including eight trips across Canada.

Three soldier boys smile indulgently they have sat it through many times from Halifax to Victoria. The sergeant explains that his old lady (wife) has an income of $475 per month, $175 she earns herself, the sergeant sends the balance, he has

The Review's Book Review

"Dark Enchantment", by Dorothy Macardie. Doubleday. 314 pp

Terka moved out from behind the stable, moved along the lane by the yard wall and stood there, staring in. She was black and wild and unkempt as an old raven, but she smiled.

F. G. Richards

Only one had seen the rolling glaring enormous orb. It was the aftermath of the vision which was the signal for violence of a new kind in the remote French village.

Dark Enchantment is the story of a small French mountain village and the reaction of the villagers to a self-professed witch. The pleasant, friendly atmosphere is changed by sorcery to one of fear and horror.

Juliet was an English girl who sought to recuperate from a physical weakness and a confused family life. Her recovery coincided with the advent of Terka. A gypsy girl who had been driven out of her tribal home for her amorous disposition, Terka was the butt of vituperation and contempt until she became more adept in the evil arts.

The story is gentle, almost free of the blatant horror that could be tied in with the evil arts, yet possessed of sufficient to give it reality. In these days of universal witch-hunting it is pleasant to see the witch-hunters turn to the real thing. Red magic holds little more appeal than black magic, but in all fairness to those professing either, the latter was better known in earlier centuries. It should take precedence in the eyes of the witch-hunters.

The story of the development from mild antipathy to mob-riots and murderous pursuits is an interesting tale. Few who read this book will feel that their time was merely wasted.—F.G.R.

small. That's one advantage of the chicken business. It doesn't need much money to get started in it."

"What a man needs mostly, as I said before, is patience. Patience to learn slowly from his mistakes. Patience to be on the job all the time, early and late, summer and winter, cleaning houses, spraying, gathering eggs twice a day, grading them, shipping once a week, killing, and so on without end. Not many people stick to it. They want to go away for a change or get someone else to do their work for them, or something."

"We couldn't consider such things. We knew we had to conserve on every side and we did. Especially were we careful to conserve our credit by always deserving it. To people of small capital that is vital."

A slow smile spread over the big man's face. "In some ways a chicken business is like a railroad. Everything has to be done on time. Feeding must be regular, bugs and flies must be continuously kept away. It's not hard work in some ways, but you've got to be there looking after the details regularly without fail. Not all the fine theories in the world will help a man succeed if he isn't regularly on the job."

Not Unusual

(Toronto Star)

Down south a judge was shot full of holes by a man he sentenced. That was unusual, but it's commonplace to have a judge's judgment shot full of holes by an appeal court.

time to his civilian pursuits. His son, however, was happy to remain airborne. He remained with the peace-time air force.

Flown Every Type

Today young Philip has attained a rank above that of his father and has flown almost every type of aircraft in the western world.

Among his accomplishments was the successful completion of the Commonwealth Test Pilots' School at Farnborough, in Britain. This school teaches pilots to assess the machines they already know how to fly. Sqdn.-Ldr. Philip has travelled about the world testing aircraft which may serve as first-line machines in the event of Canada's being brought into another world conflict.

The test pilot, who is spending a holiday at the home of his parents, hopes one day to settle in North Saanich and to forget that there is such a thing as an aircraft to be tested. That is a thought for the future. Currently he is eager to see which will be his next task and to pile up the flying hours. In this direction he has already surpassed his father.

More Hours

Flt.-Lt. Philip served in two wars. He flew in both. Sqdn.-Ldr. Philip served in one. Nevertheless, he already has more flying hours to his credit than his father. The latter lost promotion by remaining in the air. Had he elected to serve on the ground he would have completed his second war services with a higher rank.

The two-war veteran served during the First War with another North Saanich resident, Flt.-Lt. Philip and Guy Pearce, Curteis Point, were together in the war which failed to end all wars.

Deer History
The ancestor of the North American deer was a native North American but found its way from Asia, about two million years ago, by way of a land bridge which once connected the two continents. The mammoth, mastodon, and many other creatures who were once part of the American scene, are believed to have entered the continent by the same route.

WOMEN'S W.A. PROBLEM
Next month's problem in support of the drive for funds for the United Church Community Hall was held Friday, Feb. 19 at Deep Cove school. The school was filled to capacity.

Rev. W. Buckingham stated Ottawa had agreed to sell the church hall at Patricia Bay airport at a very favorable price of $750. Cost of removal would be much higher than that, and all efforts were being concentrated on raising funds for this purpose, he said.

Site already chosen, bounding school board property, had been exchanged with the school board for a new site. Equally good, added the minister. The school board had made a special request for this transfer.

Program events included the following acts: Clement Frank, humorous recitations; Frank Aldridge, songs; M. D. A. Darling, travelogue of Route 101, Oregon to Mexico, and special slides and historic data of the missions.

Capt. Darling sketched the history of the territory and explained the influence of 19th century United States territorial claims on the development of British Columbia.

LEGION OPPOSES BEER LICENSE AT SALT SPRING

D. Baldwin was elected president at the annual meeting of the Salt Spring Island branch, No. 92, of the Canadian Legion.

Other officers were W. T. Thorburn, first vice-president; W. Eagles, second vice-president; George Fyvie, secretary; Dave Fyvie, treasurer; Sgt.-at-arms, W. A. Trelford; committee, F. A. E. The meeting was held recently in the Legion Hall, Ganges, with 54 members present.

The retiring president, George Heinekey, gave a resume of the past year's business and thanked the executive for its good work.

The treasurer gave his report, showing the branch in a healthy financial condition, the membership standing at 135.

Expenditure

The poppy fund showed a very considerable expenditure in assistance to needy veterans or their families. A very hearty vote of thanks was given to the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary for their continued assistance and support.

The question of obtaining a beer license for the branch was discussed, but an overwhelming majority of the members present was definitely opposed to any action being taken.

Guild Of Sunshine Pays Tribute To Former Member

Members stood in silent tribute to the memory of the late Mrs. Arthur Walter, of Victoria, honorary president and a chartered member of the Salt Spring Island Guild of Sunshine, when the annual meeting of the organization was held recently in the board room of the Mahon Hall, Ganges.

Mrs. F. N. Newnham was re-elected president for 1954, other officers installed being Mrs. Walter Norton, first vice-president; Mrs. S. Kitchener, second vice-president; Mrs. W. G. Taylor, secretary; Mrs. George Lowe, treasurer; Mrs. Walter Jameski, welfare convener; Mrs. F. Sharpe, Mrs. J. Catto, Mrs. George Manley, executive. Mrs. Stuart Holmes was named honorary president and Miss Mary Walter first vice-president.

Amongst donations made by the guild during 1953 were: $100 towards the Salt Spring Island ambulance; $10 to the local Fire Brigade; $10 to a burnt-out family; 15 parcels and also several gifts were sent to local families and individuals at Christmas and a load of wood to a needy family.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $111.21 and the yearly donation of $5 was sent to the Institute of the Blind.

It was decided to make a small charge, in future, to other organizations, for the use of cups and saucers, plates, etc.

The date for the spring sale of work was set for Tuesday, April 8. Following adjournment tea was served by Mrs. Catto and Mrs. John Bennett.

BUSY DAYS FOR HOSPITAL STAFF

From Feb. 8 to 19 there have been 19 patients admitted to the Lady Minto Gulf Island Hospital, one from Pender, two from Galiano, one from Mayne Island and one from Saturna.

There were eight minor operations, one performed by Dr. B. J. Hallows from Saturna.

Dr. J. Sparkes, Vancouver, was at the hospital during the week in consultation with Dr. A. Francis.

The last 10 days have seen considerable difficulty owing to lack of adequate accommodation for the different types of cases. The shortage of space for maternity and surgical patients has necessitated the removal of adult patients into the children's ward.

He Ate Dead Bear With Bear Teeth

On Friday, Feb. 19, in the Fulford Hall, Marvin Williams showed the films that he had taken in Alaska. The pictures were interesting, scenic and of educational value.

Along with the pictures, Mr. Williams gave an interesting commentary. He concluded with the true story of the man who ate a bear with the bear's own teeth.

This showing was sponsored by the Fulford P.T.A. It was well attended and very much enjoyed.

THE GULF ISLANDS

SATURNA

Mr. and Mrs. H. Ostrom, valued members of the community, have left the island to take up residence in North Vancouver. A farewell party was held in the hall for them, and Mrs. Ostrom was presented with a pair of pictures of local scenes.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Card and family were honor guests at a second farewell party. The Card family is moving to Sardis. Mr. Walter Kay expressed the community's regrets at losing them, and presented Mrs. Card with a set of teapoons.

A daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, of Saturna Beach.

T. E. (Grandpa) Money is much improved and is now at home again after several weeks in Lady Minto Hospital.

Mrs. Walter Kay is now in hospital at Ganges, receiving treatment for a broken wrist.

Rev. E. Linfoot officiated with Rev. Roy Melville, father of the bride, assisting.

The bride chose a white satin, long-sleeved gown with fine tulle net yolk and embroidered peplum. Her chapel-length veil flowed from a Mary Queen of Scott head-dress in finely-pleated tulle bonnet.

Her only jewelry was a diamond pendant belonging to her paternal grandmother. Her bouquet was composed of red rose buds, stephanotis and heather.

As bridesmaid, Miss Keitha Deeks chose a pale blue ballerina length gown of nylon net over tulle. She carried a bouquet of two-tone pink carnations.

Best man was Terry Melville, brother of the groom.

Balfour Skillings, Stewart Reid and Leon Phillips were ushers.

A reception followed at Hoyers in Vancouver for 75 guests. The bride's table was centred with a

SCHOOL LOAN BY-LAW

OUTLINED BY G. L. CHATTERTON

The regular monthly meeting of Saanich Peninsula Parent-Teacher Council met at the Mount Newton Auditorium on Feb. 8, with President George Warnock in the chair. Ten of the 12 member P.T.A.'s were represented, and delegates were invited to introduce themselves, and give any announcements pertinent to their groups. Deep Cove announced that a tea and bazaar would be held by them on March 17. Mount Newton reported plans for a St. Patrick's "500" Card Party on March 19.

Cordova Bay sent a delegate, with word that they hoped to join this council for the next year. This association had previously withheld from the council.

Having had the Indian Reserve matter under review for some time past the council decided that, as the government appears to have the situation well in hand, no further action need be taken at this time.

The Meistersingers' Concert being sponsored by this group has been postponed and will now take place in the Auditorium on Friday, Feb. 26.

Liability
The matter of liability insurance of school children had been brought up by a member group, and the committee of investigation gave its report, assisted by G. L. Chatterton, former chairman of the Saanich School Board.

Only when it can be proved that a child's accident at a school is the result of gross negligence on the part of the board, is that body liable. If the courts so decide, then the board carries insurance which will cover the damages. A normal accident, such as a broken bone as a result of a fall, cannot be considered a liability of the board.

Investigation by committees in the matter of bicycle riding, and infractions of the Highway Act, and insufficient lights on cycles at night, brought forth considerable discussion. It was decided to ask the R.C.M.P. and local police to institute an educational program in the schools. If, following this, violations still continue, the council is in favor of court action.

On the matter of "fringe schools" or additions to present schools the districts represented by this council were about evenly divided, for and against. Many points were brought out, and questions asked, and these were ably replied to by Mr. Chatterton, who discussed at some length the plans for the forthcoming School Building By-law.

The board is in favor of fringe schools, but he stressed the point that these will be built where there is an existing school population. A pin-point map of the Peninsula illustrated his talk. Teachers are appointed to School District No. 63 as a whole, seldom to any specific school, and so there is no danger of fringe schools getting inexperienced teachers.

These schools will not be less than two rooms, and are needed to accommodate the 10 per cent increase in school population every year. Six years from now the school population will be about 3,100 and these two-roomed schools will become four rooms, which with an activity room will provide every advantage of a large school.

Mr. Chatterton pointed out that it is not economically sound to add new buildings on to old ones, as the new section tends to be reduced in value.

The three present buses are running to fullest capacity, and if new schools are not built, a new bus will have to be purchased, and the annual cost for this would be $4,350. It was shown that this is more costly than building.

The by-law will be presented as a whole, that is for the full sum required, but the money will only be spent as required from year to year, and of course it should be remembered that half the amount needed will be given by the government, members were warned.

A vote of thanks was given to Mr. Chatterton following his remarks, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Adamson and her committee.

Plan Veterans' Dinner In April

Tentative arrangements are being made for the annual "Old Veterans' Dinner" to take place in April. The date will be announced later.

Any veteran of the wars prior to the Second World War is eligible to attend. Veterans from all parts of this area are invited. The sponsors hope to gain the support of eligible veterans who have moved to the district since the last dinner was staged a year ago.

When disaster strikes, your Red Cross is there to provide emergency food, clothing, care and shelter. You are there when you support the Canadian Red Cross.

A CCF SOCIALIST SPEAKS...

Communism, Socialism, Same-Young

"There is no difference between theoretical Communism and Socialism," CCF party member Rod Young told UBC students Wednesday.

Sponsored by the campus CCF club, Young spoke to an audience of more than 75 on "The Difference between Communism and the CCF."

Young said that "the problem is not to show that the CCF is different from the Communists, but that it is different from Liberalism."

But the Vancouver lawyer didn't fail to score the Communists. "Communists in this country represent the most ignorant and backward sections of the working class," he said. "They are without principles and represent only their own interests."

If you are one of many British Columbians who think there's no real similarity between Socialism and Communism, this frank statement by a Vancouver Socialist (CCF) former member of Parliament will warrant your thoughtful attention.

British Columbians consistently have turned thumbs down on both Socialist and Communist efforts to take over the running of this province. A deep public instinct for freedom, a fear of government-run-everything, undoubtedly is the greatest obstacle the Marxists have to overcome in their bid for power in B.C.

More about Eaton's

To err is human, and Eaton's though as perfect as 85 years' experience can make a store, is still human. So, alas, every now and then a mistake is made, and you, our customer, are inconvenienced. Not for long, however, since we have a special section, the Service Bureau, to deal with your complaints and queries. The Service Bureau is on the Mezzanine Floor... or you may telephone, of course.

What Does the Service Bureau Do?

Just about anything to keep you happy! Complaints, adjustments, delivery problems, information... all these are part of the daily round to the Service Bureau... together with such smaller functions as making change for phone calls, acting as lost property office, and so on.

It's Convenient and Central
Suppose, for example, that something you bought isn't quite what you expected, and you feel that a refund or adjustment is needed, the Service Bureau can (and will) help you. As you know, everything you buy at Eaton's is covered by the famous guarantee, "Goods Satisfactory or Money Refunded," and everyone in every department is ready to back that guarantee to the hilt. The Service Bureau, however, can make all necessary adjustments right away, even if several departments are involved.

Deliveries Our Specialty
Here's where the Service Bureau really shines! Supposing that you order something for delivery, and it doesn't arrive when you expected. Phone the Bureau, and immediately it turns itself into a Bureau of Investigation, to ferret out all the information possible about your parcel. The number on your receipt is checked against a master list showing the whereabouts of every item in the hands of delivery... your particular parcel is rapidly tracked down and arrangements made for its speedy delivery.

Save Time and Shoe Leather
Here's another EATON'S service which you'll find convenient and time-saving. You may now pay your telephone bills in the store—either at the Accounts Office or the Cheque Cashing wicket, Third Floor, or at the Cashier's desk on the Second Floor of the House Furnishings Building. You'll find this service especially handy during wet weather... just pop into EATON'S—you can do all your shopping and pay that bill as well, without going outside again.

We'll Even Untangle Your Knitting
Should you attempt something in the knitting line that's a little beyond your powers to finish, just come in to our wool department, Third Floor, between 12 and 4 any Tuesday or Thursday. Here you can consult an expert knitter, who will be pleased to help you, whether your problem is a Fair Isle sweater or turning the heel of your first sock. For advice on anything to do with knitting—she's at your service!

PARENTS URGED TO ATTEND ALL MEETINGS OF MOUNT NEWTON P.T.A.

The Mount Newton P.T.A. met in the auditorium of the school on Tuesday, Feb. 9, when Gerald M. Callaghan, president, was in the chair. A very good attendance of parents was noted, as the various classes at the school are in competition with each other to have the most parents at the P.T.A. meeting, for which they will receive a prize.

The Meistersingers' concert will be held on Friday, Feb. 26, at 8.15 p.m. in the auditorium. There are no children's tickets printed, but they can be purchased at the door for 10c on that evening.

An appeal for blood donors at the Mobile Blood Clinic at Sidney was made, and anyone who can help, or knows of anyone else who can, please leave names with the president as soon as possible.

The B.C. Parent-Teacher Federation will hold its convention at Burnaby on April 21, 22 and 23. It was decided to approach the council with a view to sending a delegate on a per capita basis for expenses.

In order to raise funds for the purchase of a curtain for the stage of the auditorium, a St. Patrick's Card Party will be held on March 19, "500" to be played exclusively. It is hoped that interest will be great enough in this district to start a badminton club with courts in the Mount Newton auditorium. Anyone wishing to join a club of this sort is invited to get in touch with Mr. Callaghan.

Parents' Prizes
With regard to the aforementioned classroom competition for increased attendance of parents at these meetings, the winning class to be based on a percentage basis of the number of pupils in the classroom, it was decided to have a scroll made with winning class names inscribed monthly, and also a cash prize of $1, to be spent as the students wish.

A. E. Vogee, principal, reminded parents again to be sure to have students' names marked on their gym clothes, as a good deal of trouble is caused when these articles are mislaid around the school. Nominations were received at this time to fill the offices in the P.T. Council for the new year coming.

A. E. Vogee also spoke on the matter of students' being detained after hours, and explained that this seldom happens, and only in cases of extreme provocation, when a matter which occurs must be dealt with immediately for the benefit of all concerned.

At this point, the meeting was turned over to J. Nimmo, program convener, who had arranged an interesting ceremony in recognition of Founder's Day. This group has stemmed from an organization formed 12 years ago by the Women's Institute, when Mrs. W. Bate, Mrs. J. Patterson and Mrs. P. Cruse had been influential in getting things started.

Birthday Cake
A birthday cake flanked by four candles in blue and gold, the school colors, centred the table, and had 12 small candles on it. Mr. Callaghan was invited to read the "Creed of the P.T.A." and light two candles.

Mr. Vogee read "Why we have a P.T.A." and also lit two of the candles. Mrs. McNally, senior past president read the minutes of the first meeting of "Ward Six P.T.A." held on Nov. 6, 1942, and lighted another candle.

She was followed by Mrs. John Shaw, representing the Brentwood area, W. Chornlesky for Saanich, Mrs. Tubman for Keating and the following past presidents, Mrs. A. W. Steele, Adrian Butler and Mr. Miller.

G. M. Owen represented the school board, Mrs. F. Eves the district council, Mrs. W. Bate the first treasurer, and Mrs. Albert Hafer first membership convener.

HE LIVED IN FAR EAST

AND CAME BACK TO SPEAK OF IT

South Saanich Men's Club regular monthly meeting was held at the parish hall, Mount Newton Cross Road, on Tuesday, Feb. 9. After a short business session Major Rex Gibson introduced the guest speaker of the evening, R. S. Larkin of Ardmore Drive, Sidney.

After a few preliminary remarks Mr. Larkin, who lived for nearly 30 years in Asia, spoke of life in Shanghai, China, during the first four years of Communist rule in that city and during the final days of Chiang-Kai-Shek's regime.

He explained that the government troops, police and union officials received only a very small portion of the pay due them and that the men so paid came at infrequent intervals, compelling these men to resort to graft, extortion and illegal commandeering of goods and transport to support themselves.

Examples were given of the procedures followed by government officials at various levels to maintain themselves or to add further to the very large fortunes they had accumulated out of the aid furnished for China by America and other western countries. These culminated in the acceptance by the generals entrusted with the protection of Shanghai, of about a half-million U.S. dollars paid by the large merchants and landowners of Shanghai as a consideration for the abandonment of an announced plan to fight in the streets of the city, although the Communists had advanced the 80 miles from Nanking to Shanghai without any resistance worthy of the name.

No Opposition

It was apparent to the Europeans in Shanghai that the Nationalists were in no condition to put up any opposition.

Mr. Larkin also told how the Nationalists, when they evacuated Shanghai on May 24, 1949, took with them the large amounts of gold and silver which had been accumulated by them in the Chinese banks in the city and how they were able to take this treasure with them to Formosa through the open retreat route which had been left by the Communists. This was in accordance with the Chinese custom that in civil war the victorious general shall always leave an avenue through which his opponent can withdraw. It was suggested that this practice obtains to ensure similar consideration if the tables are turned at the next engagement.

The audience then heard firsthand experiences of employees in the early days of Communist administration, when the uneducated laborers and ruff thought Communism meant full support for the poorer classes and tried to extort large sums of money and to impose fantastic employment conditions by intimidation and force on the various wealthy corporations and merchants.

The Communist administration furnished military police throughout the city to deal with thieves and thugs, but left traffic control and other police duties to Nationalist forces, which had been left when the army walked out at dead of night. It was to these police that employers had to appeal for protection when faced with threatening mobs demanding hand-outs. These officials naturally supported the masses because they had no inkling as to the extent to which the authorities would support such attempts at extortion. They faced the prospect of summary execution if they were thought to be aiding Capital.

Mr. Larkin gave details of public trials with proceedings broadcast by loudspeaker throughout the streets of the city. Death sentences were imposed upon hundreds every day on the shouted verdicts of the crowds of up to 20,000. These observers attended at the football or other sports grounds where the trials were held.

Police Check

He also described the rigid police check which is imposed on all foreigners and on every Chinese in the city. Mr. Larkin outlined the advent into Shanghai of the Communist system of child spying and informing on parents, servants informing on employers and neighbors spying on neighbors.

Mr. Larkin expressed the opinion that the Chinese south of the Yangtze River would welcome the opportunity to shake off Communism provided such action did not involve the return of Chiang's Kuomintang.

In reply to a question he said that he could not see a man who could lead a movement against the Communists in the south, but he felt that if groups of Nationalist forces could be landed on the mainland, as forecast by the Nationalists, the commanders of such forces might set themselves up as small war lords, a reversion to an old form of government which might be welcomed by the people as an alternative to Mao-Tse-Tung or Chiang-Kai-Shek.

A hearty vote of thanks was extended to the speaker and great interest was shown by the many questions put to the speaker and ably answered.

To Erect Window As Memorial

St. Margaret's Ladies' Guild held its monthly meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 10, at the home of Mrs. Stanley Page, with the president, Mrs. Harold Shopland, in the chair.

Work on the kneeling mats and hassocks for the church was reported to be well under way. It was decided by the meeting that the cost of a chancel rail be obtained, in view to having it installed in the Galiano church.

The sum of $10 was voted towards the cost of a memorial window to the memory of the late Rev. Thomas Muir.

Christopher Hargreaves's offer to shellac and varnish the woodwork in the new building was gratefully accepted, the Guild to provide the necessary material.

Mrs. Shopland told the meeting of Archdeacon G. H. Holmes willingness to come to Galiano to celebrate Holy Communion on some week day in the near future. This word was to be passed on to the church committee for them to act upon it.

Brown, Mrs. T. A. Burge, Mrs. Gordon Graham, Mrs. B. C. Greenough, Mrs. M. Singleton, Mrs. Jack C. Smith, Mrs. A. K. Wilson, Miss Catherine Popham.

ALAN STEWARD WINS OUT AGAIN AT GALIANO

Competing in a class of 26 members of the Galiano Rod and Gun Club, Alan E. Steward marked up a score of 160 to win the club's Small Bore Championship Cup for the third consecutive year, also winning the annual trophy.

The Championship Cup was to have been won out-right by any member winning three years in succession but Mr. Steward waived this claim and is returning the cup to the club, to be competed for annually.

Peter Denroche was runner-up with a score of 147.

Presentation of the trophy and cup was made by the president of the club, Ross Parmenter, at a St. Valentine's dance held on Saturday, Feb. 13, at Galiano Hall and sponsored by the club.

The dance was a great success, the music being supplied by Silver Bros. Orchestra.

Prizes were won by the following: door prize, Miss Beth Bellhouse; spot dance, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baines; elimination, Miss Bernice Silvey and Vic Sanson. Lucky draw, Mrs. A. Sater, and lucky number, Miss Sallie Steward. This last prize was a box of shortbread donated by Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson.

Mrs. Ross Parmenter, Mrs. Ed. Lee, Mrs. P. Denroche and Mrs. M. Backlund were in charge of the refreshments.

UNUSUAL TRIO OF INSTRUMENTS TO PLAY HERE

Residents of this district will have the opportunity of hearing the first performance in North Saanich of an instrumental trio composed of violin, piano and organ, at the concert to be presented by the Sidney-North Saanich Musical Society in St. Paul's United Church, Sidney, on March 6.

Appearances of the trio are of necessity confined to places where both a piano and an organ are available, and St. Paul's Church provides an excellent opportunity for such a performance. Members of the trio are Muriel Filby, pianist; Grace Beswick, violinist, and Eric Edwards, organist.

Although a vast amount of music has been written for string trios, little has been done for this rather unusual but, none-the-less, effective combination of instruments. Arrangements of two very beautiful numbers will be heard, however, when the trio plays Stradella's "Church Air" and the Bach-Gounod "Meditation."

The choir, under the able direction of Conductor E. V. Edwards, L.R.S.M., A.R.C.T., will sing a wide diversity of selections, accompanied by Muriel Filby, A.T.C.M.

Mrs. F. D. Till, L.R.A.M., G.R.S.M., will portray her usual artistry in two groups of pianoforte solos. Guest artist, Miss Florence Smith, of Victoria, will also be heard twice on the program. Contralto soloist at the Metropolitan United Church, Miss Smith is well-versed in music.

SIDNEY COUPLE MARKS GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY HERE

On March 3, 1904, Sarah Dudley became the wife of Walter Norbury in a church in Blackpool, England. One year later the couple left their native land and sailed to Canada. Next week, Mr. and Mrs. Norbury will mark the 50th anniversary of their wedding.

Fifty years ago the newly-married couple stood on the threshold of their lives. Today they can look back on half a century of accomplishment.

A Manitoba farmer until his retirement to Sidney seven years ago, Mr. Norbury spent many years popularizing the Jersey cattle in the prairie provinces. Upon his retirement, Mr. Norbury was the subject of a story in the Canadian Jersey Breeder, official publication of the Jersey breeders in this country. The report stated that few Canadians had done more to gain a following for the breed than had Mr. Norbury. At that time it was also stated that few herds of Jerseys on the prairies were without Sunnyvale strain. Sunnyvale was the name of the Norbury farm at McAuley. The Sidney couple did not arrive at McAuley immediately upon their landing in Canada. For a time they lived in London, Ont., and later resided in Winnipeg. In 1915 Mr. Norbury acquired the McAuley farm. Eight years later he came out to Sidney to manage the Jersey herd at the Dominion Experimental Station, Sidney. In 1926 he left for Manitoba where he farmed until his retirement.

The couple have 10 children. They are two sons, Dudley, who resides near his parents on Queens Ave., and Sidney, farming at McAuley. Eight daughters are Mrs. Cliff Plewes and Mrs. Harold Richards, Sidney; Grace, in Calgary; Mrs. George Allan, Saskatoon; Mrs. C. Skippy, Seattle; Mrs. Frank Buckinski, Fort Smith, N.W.T.; Mrs. Ted Treanor, New Westminster, and Mrs. Archie Robertson, Elkhorn, Man. They have also 13 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Mr. Norbury is a veteran of the Boer War.

They will mark their golden wedding anniversary on March 3, when they will be at home from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. bureau vacancies, with W. Wilks as alternative.

F. J. Bennett reported for the delegation that interviewed Minister of Public Works P. A. Gagliardi in Victoria.

W. Wilks stated that the bureau power committee would meet on Mayne Island on Sunday and that until they had an interview with the power commission there was little to report.

The question of a stretcher for the island was again discussed and it was moved by R. Aitken and Dick Salmon that a committee of two be appointed to collect funds to purchase one.

The chairman appointed Mr. Aitken and R. J. Steele.

Guide Officers To Serve Again

The local association of Guide Mothers for Saanich met at the home of Mrs. M. Mills, Wallace Drive, Monday, Feb. 15, with Mrs. Freeman King, district divisional commissioner, as guest at the annual meeting where the nominations for new officers were not accepted. The previous officers have been asked to continue for another year.

Plans were made for a family evening and a St. Patrick's Day tea under the convener'ship of Mrs. J. Wheeler.

It is hoped that community friends will stand behind the Girl Guides and Brownies as the girls are so energetic.

Tea was served by Mrs. Mills and Mrs. S. Fisher.

DEEP COVE

The afternoon branch of the Deep Cove United Church W.A. held its regular monthly meeting on Thursday, Feb. 18, at the home of Mrs. D. Scott, Laurel Road. Eight members were present.

Mrs. Wm. Anderson-Smith, Madrona Drive, has left by plane for Vancouver, where she will visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Herder.

One name omitted from the list of hostesses for the telephone bridge at Deep Cove, was Mrs. H. T. J. Coleman, who had two tables.

Mrs. Wm. Stewart, Downey Road, had a birthday party on Saturday, Feb. 20, for her son, Ian, who was six years old. Sixteen guests arrived to help him celebrate.

New Hall In Sight

First stage of construction of the proposed Sidney Community Hall will be concluded by Sidney Day, July 1. At Tuesday evening's meeting of Sancha it was ruled that construction would be commenced at the earliest opportunity. The floor of the new structure will be used as a stage during the annual celebrations in Sidney.

Members of the community hall group learned that considerable pertinent information had been received from the department of education of Manitoba. Few other sources could offer so diverse a supply of detail, members were told.

The pepper pot draw will be staged at the next meeting, March 30. Sale of membership tickets for the car contest is making excellent progress, it was stated. The car is a 1954 Ford 4-door sedan.

Hall Fund
The hall fund now stands at approximately $4,500, including pledges and funds raised for the purpose by other organizations. Expenses incurred by Sancha in its fund-raising schemes are not taken from the hall fund. All donations and funds allocated to the building fund are left intact. Operating expenses are taken from an entirely separate account, maintained for that purpose, it was stated.

Attendance at the meeting was poor and organizations are to be circulated urging a full support of the campaign.

GUIDE NOTES

FROM SIDNEY

The Girl Guides met in the Scout and Guide Hall, Monday evening, Feb. 22, under the leadership of Mrs. G. F. Gilbert and Mrs. B. Eckert. There were seven members in attendance. The Guide work was reviewed.

It was decided to hold future meetings on each Wednesday afternoon at 4 p.m., starting March 10. A full attendance is hoped for.

Through your Red Cross the hospitalized veteran is not a forgotten man. Day in and day out volunteer Red Cross workers help and visit those people and make an otherwise dreary life one of happiness and contentment.

TOTAL $1,300 COLLECTED FOR POLIO FUNDS

Residents of Central Saanich contributed a gratifying sum to the recent polio drive. A total of $1,300.59 was collected in the municipality. The campaign was divided into two sections, Brentwood and the remainder of the municipality.

In charge of the campaign in the former area was Mrs. S. Brown, while W. Chornlesky managed the campaign in the rest of the municipality. The total raised in Brentwood was $527.59. In the surrounding area of Central Saanich the sum of $773 was contributed.

The drive was part of the Kinsmen's B.C. Polio Fund campaign. The funds will be used to aid victims of the disease which is gaining prominence across the continent.

The Kinsmen have concluded an arrangement with the federal government whereby all funds devoted to the purchase of equipment to combat the disease will be matched by the government. Thus if the Kinsmen are able to acquire 17 iron lungs for use in the province, the federal government will contribute another 17.

In the report of the drive published last week the figure collected in Central Saanich, outside Brentwood, was erroneously listed as $700, instead of $773.

On behalf of the Kinsmen, Mr. Chornlesky expressed thanks and
